CURED BOY OF CROUP.
Nothing frightens a mother more than the loud, hoarse cough of croup. The labored, strangled, choking and gasping for breath call for instant action. Mrs. T. Neureuer, Eau Claire, Wis., says: "Poley's Honey and Tar cured my boy of a serious attack of croup after other remedies had failed. I recommend it to every one as we know from our own experience that it is a wonderful remedy for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough." It clears air passages, soothes and heals. C. C. BINGHAM.

The 25 cent piece was made famous by the American Liver Tablets, the perfect laxative.

A Few Deer Captured By Local Hunters—School Entertainment.

(George A. Porter, Correspondent.)
Mr. and Mrs. Austin Rich of Glover visited at J. D. Olmstead's last week. P. Q. 66 years ago. He is survived by his wife and three children, Richard, who is in the navy, Mrs. Sadie St. Clair and Willie and two brothers and one sister, Peter and Nelson of this place and Mrs. Sophie Arpin of Canada. The interment was at St. Johnsbury.

George Marshall and Ervin Hull went to Westmore the first of last week to hunt deer. Ervin came home the last of the week without a deer and George is still on the trail we suppose. Several from town have been camping on Wheelock mountain but so far as heard from have not succeeded in bringing down a deer.

Here in town Roy Young got a fine buck early in the week. Raymond Silver brought in another and David Spier got a fine doe.

The teachers and pupils of the village schools gave the public a nice entertainment Friday afternoon at the Town hall, consisting of recitations, dialogues, songs and instrumental music, the children doing credit to themselves and their teachers in doing their work well in the evening case.

Bedell's orchestra and Mr. Crowley, the instructor in music, kindly volunteered their services in furnishing other music for the entertainment.

The children had been busy during their spare time in making various little articles which they offered for sale at the entertainment and succeeded in getting a fund of about $14 for "The Pupils School Fund."

The purchase of some useful articles needed in the school rooms. The teachers are the Misses Maude and Myrtle Bailey, Master Ralph Silver, who took the entertainment and succeeded in getting a fund of about $14 for "The Pupils School Fund."

Herbert Rodgers Nearly Killed By A Gun He Didn't Know Was Loaded.

(Mrs. C. W. Bartlett, Correspondent.)
Herbert, the fourteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Merton Rodgers of this place had a very narrow escape from death last Saturday evening, while cleaning his father's shot gun which he did not know was loaded.

In some way the gun was discharged and he was hit in the face, cutting a gash which made it necessary to take nine stitches. At the time of the accident there were several other members of the family in the room and although the discharge went through the table cloth, and around the chairs and finally through the side board and into the base board no one was injured. The lamp which was lighted at the time was put out by the explosion.

Dr. H. L. Pache was immediately called and the injured boy was taken to Brightlook hospital where aside from the cuts, no other injuries were found and he is recovering nicely.

At the last meeting of the Danville Grange the question, "Shall the United States Enlarge Its Army and Navy?" was discussed pro and con by several members. The canning of fruits and vegetables was also on the program for discussion by the ladies.

At the next meeting, Dec. 7, the first and second degrees will be worked on 10 candidates. The contest between the two divisions led by Mrs. Ella Badger and Miss Christine Hatch is finished and the supper to be served by Mrs. Badger's side will be on Jan. 4, when the officers will be installed by the state master, W. N. Cady of Middlebury.
